Press release

Wihlborgs strengthens its organisation

Wihlborgs has appointed Margareta Lantz as Director of Communication and Marketing. She will join Wihlborgs on 1 November and will succeed Director of Corporate Communication Iréne Johansson on her retirement in the new year. Margareta will also become a member of Wihlborgs' Group Management.

Margareta has been Corporate Communications & PR Manager at Axis Communications in Lund, Sweden since 2005. She has previously held similar positions at Tetra Pak and Alfa Laval.

"We are pleased to welcome Margareta to the Wihlborgs' team," says Anders Jarl, CEO of Wihlborgs Fastigheter. "At the same time, we are taking the opportunity to reorganise internally and merge the information and marketing departments into one communication department with responsibility for all our internal and external communication. Margareta has the right background and experience, and her extensive expertise makes her a perfect complement for Wihlborgs."

"I look forward to utilising communication to further cement Wihlborgs' market position as the leading commercial property company in the Öresund region," says Margareta. "The Öresund region is in an expansive phase, in which Wihlborgs contributes to the further development of the region, by acquiring, developing and actively managing properties through the application of a long-term and sustainable approach."
